

This is a life-changing experience that I would recommend to anyone interested in meditation. Cristina teaches from the heart. She provides a very approachable, clear, friendly introduction to meditation. There is a perfect balance between information and practice. I found it extremely mind-opening, the way I use to think about things has changed. I feel happier and more relaxed.

Thanks for your inspirational and beautiful presence that you radiate.